

Robert Morin MD and a team of doctors and nurses from Miami Children's Hospital spent a week in Haiti operating on injured children 9 days after the earthquake in 2010. ABC Nightline documents the experience.

